Windows Autopilot

Unbox. Log in. Take off.

Imagine being able to get your new Windows devices up and running in minutes. With a few simple clicks, Windows Autopilot can do that and a whole lot more—just like magic!

Free up IT

Windows Autopilot frees up your IT staff so they can focus on more pressing work issues within your organization.

Move to the cloud on your own terms

Speed up your company's digital transformation and maximize the total value of Microsoft 365.

Get employee devices up and running faster than ever before

Quickly customize, reset, and repurpose all of your devices

Enhance security measures and protect your information

Get started

Let us help you build a happier and more engaged workforce by empowering them to be productive from day one with Windows Autopilot.

Learn more

Windows Autopilot
Self-service setup in a flash

Now you can get new Windows devices ready for work in just a few minutes. It's the best out-of-box set-up experience available from Windows—and it requires zero IT touchpoints.

Simplify deployment

Get your teams up and running quickly by reducing the complexity of setting up new devices.

Manage your devices

Speed up your digital transformation with centralized cloud-based device management.

Increase security

Keep the information on your devices well-protected with powerful security features.

Improve employee satisfaction

Build a happier and more engaged workforce by giving them the technology they need.

Get started

Let us help you build a happier and more engaged workforce by empowering them to be productive from day one with Windows Autopilot.

Learn more